

Programming Exercise 2.

1. Write a program to write two 32 bit numbers to memory and perform addition and subtraction on them.
2. Write programs to perform AND and OR functions on two 32 bit numbers. You will need to write two 32 bit numbers into memory. Then transfer them from memory to registers and then perform the logical functions.
3. Modify programs 1 and 2 to save the results in a memory address.